Lifelong learner, and energized by complex problems, I discovered my passion for programming after graduating with my B.A. in Communication. I have 10 months of independent full stack developer experience and I am eager to continue growing my skill set. I pride myself on continuously increasing the value I provide to my community, and I am looking to deliver my potential to an organization who shares my motivation.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

Carlsean.com | Personal Portfolio Site

2021 - 2022 | Remote

- View my portfolio site with the link in the top right of this page, or visit <https://carlsean.com/>
- I built this site to showcase my skills as a developer, and to display three of my personal projects
- The section at the bottom of this resume shows the technical skills that I've developed in my experience
